Center For Siouxland's New President/CEO

Center For Siouxland announces Brian Mathers has been appointed as President/CEO. Mathers was most recently the Director of Research Development for the University of South Dakota. Prior to that he was the Executive Director of the Lincoln Action Program, a community action agency in Lincoln, NE. Brian has worked throughout his career as a grant writer, program developer, grant administrator, community organizer, and case management trainer.

"I'm really pleased to be joining the Center For Siouxland team," Mathers said, "and because of the economic downturn, the Center's services are especially vital. I'm excited to work with all of our stakeholders to find solutions for our participants and the community."
